DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. As per Applicant's instructions as filed on 12/27/2004, claims 1-4 have been amended.

Response to Remarks

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to amended claims as above have been carefully considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection incorporating the previously cited prior art reference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 1 and 3-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ishikawa et al (5,818,970).

Regarding claims 1 and 3-4, Ishikawa et al discloses a moving image data controlling apparatus/method, and computer readable medium storing a program (col. 32, lines 60-64), comprising:

Art Unit: 2613

a moving image source input unit (Fig. 1, 102) inputting moving image data;

a moving image data encoding unit (109) compressing the moving image data from the moving image source input unit;

an information input unit (Fig. 1, 103; Fig. 29, 2006) inputting control information externally produced and designating a processing for the moving image data inputted through the moving image source input unit;

a control information encoding unit (Fig. 1, 111; Fig. 29, 2007) compressing the control information from the information input unit;

a data integrating unit (112) integrating a compressed image data from the moving image data encoding unit with a compressed control information from the information encoding unit (col. 5, lines 42-63); and storing the image data and the control information which are integrated (col. 3, lines 18-20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ishikawa et al (5,818,970).

Regarding claim 2, Ishikawa et al discloses a moving image data controlling apparatus, comprising:

a moving image source input unit (Fig. 1, 102) inputting moving image data;

a moving image data encoding unit (109) compressing the moving image data from the moving image source input unit;

an area information input unit (Fig. 1, 103; Fig. 29, 2006) inputting area information externally produced and defined for each predetermined image unit of the moving image data inputted through the moving image source input unit;

an area information encoding unit (Fig. 1, 111; Fig. 29, 2007) compressing the area information from the area information input unit; and a data integrating unit (112) integrating a compressed area information from the area information encoding unit, as additional information for all pixels in each predetermined image unit of the moving image data inputted through the moving image source input, with a compressed digital moving image data from the moving image data encoding unit (col. 5, lines 42-63).

Even though Ishikawa et al does not specifically disclose digital images, the Examiner takes official notice that it is well known in the art.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the relevant art employing a moving image data controlling apparatus as taught by Ishikawa et al to substitute the moving image source with the digital moving image source in order to enhance the quality of the image data.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a). A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
